1. This is by way of a status reply [   ] who is away until September 2, has requested the necessary birth certificates and marriage certificates. The copy of the adoption law, of course, is readily available and we assume the necessary letters from the ministers will present no difficulty. We assume the letters are to be of a To Whom It May Concern variety and are to state that the adopting parents are members of the church and are known to be of good morals and reputation. Please advise if any other is wanted. On the point of religion, we hope there will be no conflict of religion between the adopting parents and the child, or if there is one, that it will not prevent adoption. We do not now know the Lidasis' religion.

2. At last report (August 19) [   ] had no word that the Lidasis had heard from Identity B.

3. We enclose a copy of P.L. 85-316. As you will see, your information from the Consulate appears to be correct. We have discussed the statute with an official of the responsible agency. He advises that they make no search for missing parents, nor do they require extensive proof of disappearance.
